What is it that underlies our lives? – The 12 links of dependent arising

Lecturer: Jane Pathan Friedewald

She leads through the event together with participants of the meditation and study group of Marpa Lobdra Germany - Berlin, who have dealt with the topic for a longer period of time.

Location: TTC-Hamburg
Harkortstieg 4 | 22765 Hamburg

To understand what underlies our lives, we have no choice but to rely on the wisdom of a Fully Awakened One. Buddha explained in the Sūtra of Rice Seedling (Skt. Śālistamba Sūtra) that our life is based on a cause-and-effect relationship that he demonstrated with the formula of twelve interdependent links of a closed circle. The causal effect is similar to the arable soil. Non-awareness is the sower that sows the seed of consciousness. The seedling - moistened with desire - with the trait of deception is not self-dependend, because it has formed of numerous causes and circumstances.

The association Marpa Lobdra Germany e.V. contributes to education in the Buddha-Dharma. The association offers teaching programs and deepening through meditation on consecutive writings and topics.

Jane Pathan Friedewald is a disciple of Venerable Khenpo Tsultrim Gyamtso Rinpoche, who tirelessly spends most of his life developing the depth and treasure of Buddhist teaching for the Western world.
